Title: Moonglow and You!

Author: Samon Triest

I am guessing you must have been bored to start reading this, so I won't go through a large speel of how Moonglow Town Council is one of the oldest guilds on the shard. I will skip the generic description of what we are and do. I will just go simple on you.

If you like to role-play, or would love to learn a new playstyle, then let us know. We are willing to help you become a solid roleplayer. If you are interested, then please, ICQ Avature at 453899129

Let him know you are interested. It could change how you play UO.

Give roleplay a chance.
Join the Moonglow Town Council.
